

Position: Quaker Voluntary Service Fellow - Join a Transformative Journey!

Community Living | Social Justice | Transformational Spirituality

Are you a young adult between the ages of 21-30 seeking a year-long adventure in intentional community, social justice, and personal growth? Quaker Voluntary Service (QVS) invites you to embark on a life-changing Fellowship program where you'll dive into meaningful work, build intentional connections, and explore the realms of spirituality.

About QVS:

Quaker Voluntary Service is not just a fellowship; it's a transformative experience. As a QVS Fellow, you'll work full-time at social service and social change agencies, addressing a spectrum of critical issues such as economic justice, racial equity, housing and homelessness, education, immigration, environmental sustainability, human rights, mental and physical disability, and youth justice.

What We Seek:

An ideal QVS Fellow is someone who:

- Is committed to working with diverse community members.
- Brings a willingness to explore and practice spirituality.
- Is prepared to work in a professional setting.
- Is ready to ask challenging questions about living simply, with integrity and justice.

Program Highlights:

- Locations: Fellowships available in Boston, MA; Minneapolis/St. Paul, MN; Philadelphia, PA; and Portland, OR.
- Supportive Environment: QVS provides housing, utilities, a public transit pass, a grocery stipend, and assistance with SNAP registration.
- Comprehensive Assistance: From securing health insurance to student loan counseling, we've got you covered.
- Equity Fund: Access to an equity fund for Fellows with historically marginalized identities.
- Robust Support: Dedicated time for reflection, community building, and support from experienced staff and volunteers.

Program Timeline:

The 9.5-month program runs from the end of August to mid-June each year.

How to Apply:

Apply by February 28th at www.quakervoluntaryservice.org/apply. Ensure you have reference forms from a supervisor, a spiritual mentor/companion, and a housemate for a fully considered application. Find the forms on our website:
